

BREEDING TO AN AL-MARAH STALLION

When you select an Al-Marah stallion for your mare, you can expect:

1. Predictability. The stallions at Al-Marah represent the culmination of a 65 year scientifically based breeding program. We offer generations of proof. From Indraff blood alone, our past and current customers have joined us in producing the winners of 149 National Champions, 150 Reserve National Champions and over 950 Top Tens.
2. Statistics. The best statistical probability of getting your mare in foal.
3. A Sensible and Economical Investment. Al-Marah keeps its stud fees and board rates reasonable. The show records of our senior sires compare favorably with other nationally known stallions. There is also security in the knowledge that our senior sires have brothers and sisters, sires, dams and progeny that are proven winners.
4. Full Service. This includes advice on breeding, training and riding. Al-Marah can also help with management consultation as well as advertising and marketing services.
5. Integrity. Al-Marah has been in business for 65 years. Our commitment to integrity now extends into a second generation of the family, with the expectation that future generations will maintain and extend our commitment to excellence in breeding. We are not simply handing down bloodlines but an attitude. For us, Arabians are very precious and should command a high standard of care. We look for commitment and selectivity in ownership. We want caring, good people for customers. We cherish them as they join our program and enter our lives. We treat them accordingly.

WHEN YOUR MARE ARRIVES AT AL-MARAH

Al-Marah offers "State of the Art" breeding facilities.

We will breed your mare at our Tucson facility by natural cover or artificial insemination. We will also offer transported semen from most of our stallions. Foals produced by cooled or frozen semen are eligible for registration with the Arabian Horse Registry of America, provided that all Registry rules and regulations are followed.

When you have selected the appropriate stallion, the Stallion Service and Boarding Agreement should be completed and mailed to our office, along with the proper booking fee.

We always recommend that your mare be insured for surgical as well as full mortality. If she has a foal at her side or if she is going to foal here, we suggest you also insure the foal.

NORMAL ARRIVAL TIMES AT AL-MARAH ARE Monday through Saturday 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon and 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. DAILY, or by special arrangement if requested in advance. Your mare will start in our health, feeding and foal care programs immediately. If your mare requires special feed or care, we will try to accommodate her needs.
